Can I change my name on an Air France ticket?

Yes, you can change your name on an Air France ticket, but only for specific, limited situations. Air France allows:

- Typographical corrections
- Adjustments due to legal name changes
- Fixing misplaced initials

- Correcting small spelling errors
- Changing a name format to match official ID

You cannot change the entire name to a new person, as Air France does not allow ticket transfers. To confirm whether your correction is allowed, call 📞 +1-858-280-2785 (USA) or 📞 +1-855-485-0301 (USA).

Air France customer support will verify your passport details and approve or deny the request based on fare type.

Can I transfer my Air France ticket to another person?

No. Air France tickets cannot be transferred to another passenger. Airline regulations and fare rules strictly prohibit transferring ownership.

However, if your situation involves:

- An incorrect name entered during booking
- A spelling mistake
- A missing middle name or wrong order
- A legal name change

You may qualify for a correction. To check if your case fits Air France policy, contact 📞 +1-858-280-2785 (USA) or 📞 +1-855-485-0301 (USA).

Can I change my name on a flight already booked?

Yes, Air France allows name changes after your flight is booked, as long as it is a correction and not a full passenger change. Calling 📞 +1-858-280-2785 (USA) or 📞 +1-855-485-0301 (USA) can help you make the correction quickly.

Examples of changes allowed after booking:

- Correcting “Jhon” to “John”
- Fixing reversed names like “Smith John” to “John Smith”
- Adding missing characters
- Changing a surname due to marriage
- Updating a legal name

Changes such as replacing “Alice” with “David” are not allowed, as this counts as a ticket transfer.

If the flight is soon, contact 📞 +1-858-280-2785 (USA) or 📞 +1-855-485-0301 (USA) immediately for priority assistance.

Can you transfer a plane ticket to a different name?

Generally, no, and this applies to almost all major airlines, including Air France. You cannot transfer your ticket to another person because:

- The ticket is linked to your passport
- Security and border laws prohibit identity changes
- Air France fare rules block passenger replacements

Instead of transferring the ticket, Air France may let you:

- Cancel (depending on fare rules)
- Rebook under the correct name at an additional cost
- Correct minor errors
- Request support through 📞 +1-858-280-2785 (USA) or 📞 +1-855-485-0301 (USA)

If you need to change the entire name, often the only solution is to cancel and rebook—support agents at 📞 +1-858-280-2785 (USA) or 📞 +1-855-485-0301 (USA) can help guide you.
